YOUR DAY

beautifully told

FROM THE LITTLE DETAILS
TO THE BIG CELEBRATIONS

REAL MOMENTS. REAL MEMORIES. REAL YOU.

STORYTELLING with heart ♥

I'm Annie, a wedding photographer with a documentary heart and a love for the in-between moments.

I believe the most meaningful photographs aren't posed, they're felt. The laughter, the quiet glances, the happy tears and the wild dancing. I'm there to capture it all, naturally and beautifully.

♥ MY APPROACH

Documentary by nature

I blend into your day, capturing moments as they unfold, so you can be fully present.

Emotive & timeless

My style is natural, warm and true to life, creating images that will never go out of style.

All the little details

From the smallest details to the biggest celebrations, I'll capture everything in between.

“My goal is simple, to tell the true story of your day, so you can relive it for years to come.”

Relaxed, natural and beautifully unforced. I focus on real moments, genuine connection and all the little things that make your day yours.

CAPTURING the real story

Your wedding day is made up of a thousand fleeting moments. My job is to see them, anticipate them and capture them honestly, so you can be fully present.

I'll be there for the belly laughs, the quiet tears, the stolen glances and the moments you didn't even know were happening. The big moments and the small.

All of it. The real story of you.
